Skinny Dipping

Fitted stitches, faded edges giving way for skin unfolded, a new map for travelers. Chills skim her spine, they're living off a coldness she could not bear alone.

She unwraps her insecurities one by one for you but she does not shiver.
She is not exposed, merely dark and done with swimming when she'd rather float, silver and shiny, sleek slick skillful, you'd think she'd done this before. Cock your head to the side and take a lung's worth of salt and sea weed until you taste the same, outside to in.
